Let's talk immersion

Language thrives in a culture, not simply in a classroom. PC's English Immersion Program helps students acclimate to conversational English and daily life in American culture before they begin their university program.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

English Immersion Program

Located on a beautiful 240-acre campus between two major cities in South Carolina, Presbyterian College (PC) offers a unique cultural experience. The English Immersion Program allows international students to improve their English skills while exploring a historic region of the United States.

Why take an immersion course?

PC's 4-week English Immersion Program (EIP) helps students adjust to conversational English and daily life in America. Participants have the chance to learn and practice effective communication skills in a close-knit, student-focused environment. Students will be able to build meaningful relationships with PC faculty and American students.

Instruction

The program is designed to raise students' English levels and introduce them to the academic skills expected of American university students. It includes 60 hours of classroom instruction, as well as daily tutoring sessions. The small class size provides an excellent setting for discussion. In addition, students learn valuable research methods and are able to attend a variety of lectures from exceptional faculty.

Discover the South

EIP will introduce students to the culture of the American South through a variety of activities including:

- In-class assignments and projects
- Literature, movie and music discussions
- Local excursions

Local Excursions

The program fee for the English Immersion Program also includes regional excursions to nearby locations such as Greenville, South Carolina and Charleston, South Carolina. During excursions, participants have the opportunity to experience local culture and view historic landmarks.

Accommodation

At Presbyterian College, program participants will be provided with on-campus housing equipped with basic furniture and laundry facilities.

The Office of International Programs will help coordinate meals, shopping and other needs as necessary.

Application Requirements

Students must be currently enrolled at an undergraduate institution. The online application is available at www.presby.edu/international.

Note: Students participating in the EIP who plan to enroll at Presbyterian College will have PC's language requirements waived for the following school year.

Program Dates and Deadline

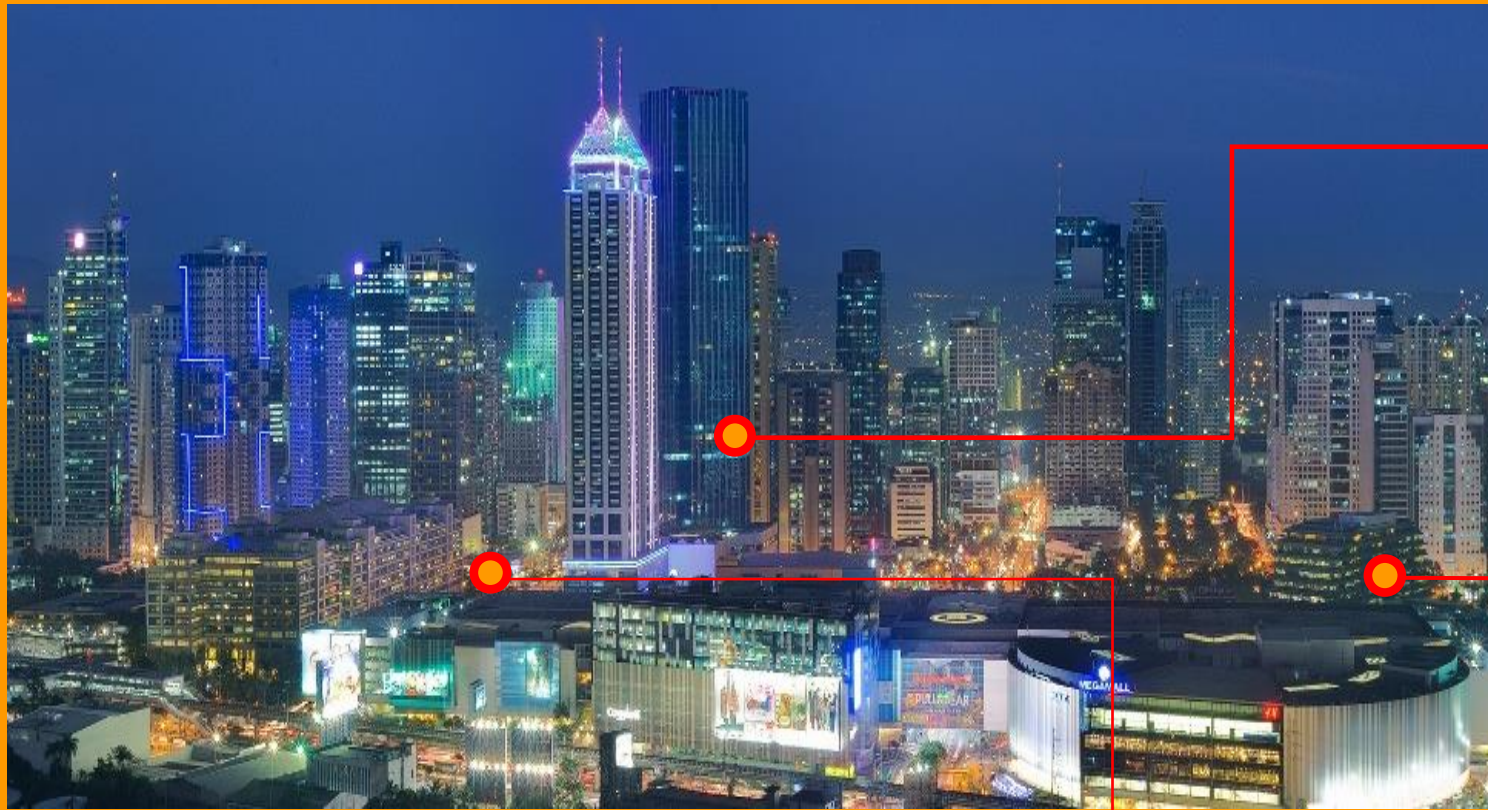

The winter session of the 4-week English Immersion Program begins in January. The deadline to apply is November 1.

The summer session of the 4-week English Immersion Program begins in July. The deadline to apply is May 15.

English Immersion Program Fee

The overall fee for the program is $2,500 (USD). This fee includes:

- 4 weeks of instruction
- Accommodation and some meals
- All activities and excursions
- Airport pick-up service
- Library and computer lab access
- Access to on-campus gym, sports fields and laundry facilities
